BILL NO.	DESCRIPTION OF BILL	Senate Rept.	Passed Senate	House Rept.	Passed House	P. L. No.	COMMENTS
H. R. 1 (Cooper)	The Trade Agreements Extension bill.	No. 232	5/4/55	No. 50	2/18/55		Pending in Conference.
H. J. Res. 159 (Richards) S. J. Res. 28 (George)	Authorizing the President to employ the Armed Forces for protecting the security of Formosa and the Pescadores.	No. 13	1/28/55	No. 4	1/25/55	No. 4 1/29/55	STAT
H. R. 4941 (Richards)	To amend the Foreign Service Act of 1946	No. 127	3/30/55	No. 229	2/23/55	No. 22 4/5/55
S. 67 (Johnston) H. R. 4688 (Murray)	Federal employees pay increase bill.	No. 58	3/25/55				Hearings completed before Senate & House Committees on Post Office and Civil Service. Awaiting final action on Postal Pay bill.
H. R. 2425 (Rees)	To place all Federal employee training authorities (including CIA) in one bill.						This bill re-enacts Sec. 4 of the CIA Act of 1949, and exempts CIA from other portions of the bill. Director of Training recommends support of HR 2425 in preference to other bills which would limit CIA training authority. The Bureau of the Budget forwarded a proposed Administration bill on this subject to CIA for comment. This proposal repeals CIA's training authorization without effective substitute, and CIA has objected to its submission to the Congress as presently drafted.
H. R. 3819 (Corbett)	To revise laws relating to Federal employees overseas. (Overseas Allowances Act of 1955.						This bill provides quarters allowance, cost of living allowance, an education allowance for dependent children, storage allowance and post differential for Federal employees stationed abroad or in the territories. The Administration's proposals have not yet been forwarded to Congress.
